

REPORT ON
WORLD TUBERCULOSIS DAY
24 MARCH 2023

THEME: YES, WE CAN END TB

Department of Medical Surgical Nursing

Shree Saraswati College of Nursing,

Tondavali

AIMS

1. Achieve universal access to high-quality care for all people with TB
2. Reduce the human suffering and socioeconomic burden associated with TB
3. Protect vulnerable populations from TB, TB/HIV and multidrug-resistant TB
4. Support development of new tools and enable their timely and effective use

OBJECTIVES:

1. Protect and promote human rights in TB prevention, care and control
2. To provide outpatient facility for diagnosis, control, treatment of tuberculosis and to augment IEC activities in order to strengthen preventive aspect by educating the masses.
3. To provide outdoor patient care for patients of TB and respiratory diseases.
4. To promote training, teaching and research in TB.
5. To organize training activities for various health workers/personnel involved in the control and management of tuberculosis.
6. To provide specialized diagnostic and treatment facilities for tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases patients

REPORT ON WORLD TUBERCULOSIS DAY

Department of Medical Surgical Nursing conducted program on world Tuberculosis day is held on 24 March 2023 in shree saraswati College Of Nursing, tondavali at 10 am at Saraswati high school, nandgaon within 164 students. This day is opportunity to raise awareness about Tuberculosis, issues and educate to reduce the spread of infections and preventive measures. The students of first year BSc nursing had performed role play regarding prevention and awareness about tuberculosis and also spoken about tuberculosis day programme including importance of DOTS therapy, patient education and prevention of Tuberculosis. There are total number of participant are 164 they also actively participated and shown there delegations towards the Tuberculosis Day program. At the end of vote of thanks given by Miss Priyanka Devali madam here by with the collaboration and cooperation of departmental faculties and management the program was successful and effective.

